En Las Paredes / La Peña Art September Exhibits

Theater& Lobby: Quique Cruz's Archeology of Memory. An exhibit exploring the idea of pain and beauty, and how a group of friends (poets, painters, musicians) former Villa Grimaldi's detainees - Pinochet's infamous torture center - have continued producing art. Supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, California Arts Council, Ford Foundation, and the Chilean art foundation FONDART. Reception September 27 @ 6:30pm

Guillermo Nuñez

Cafe: Victor Jara Exhibit. A photo exhibit about the Chilean songwriter killed during the military coup in 1973 and whose image is highlighted in La Peña's mural.

California budget crisis costs La Peña $72,000

CAC Budget Slashed by 90%

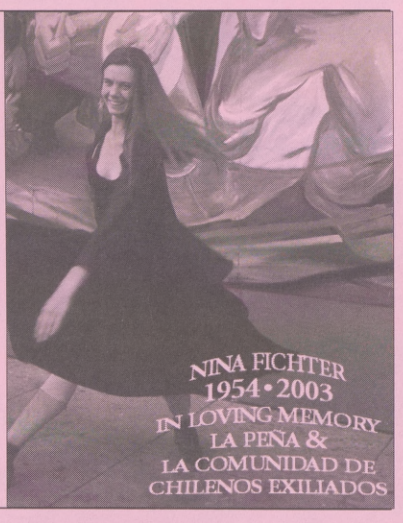
In the midst of this crisis, your support is more important than ever.

The state legislature has effectively eliminated the California Arts Council (CAC), the state agency that funds the arts. This means the end of CAC funding for artists and community-based arts organizations like La Peña. La Peña will lose $72,000, over 10% of our total budget and will be without CAC-funded artists-in-residence who teach free classes at the Center, a popular program for nearly 20 years. With billions on the national level going to fight unjust wars abroad and a continued boom in prison spending within California, these cuts for critical services are outrageous. La Peña asks you to join us in sending a message to elected representatives to resume support for the arts and to redouble efforts for justice and democracy in these politically challenging times. Finally, we ask you to cast your vote for community arts by redoubling your support for La Peña.

¡HASTA SIEMPRE COMPAÑERAS!

In Memorium
Edith C. Davison
Born April 4, 1920. Died July 10, 2003

Life-long activist, former teacher, and a dedicated volunteer with the U.F.W., KPFA, La Peña Cultural Center, and other organizations. Her fighting spirit will always be with us. We will miss her!



Thur. Sept. 11

"I was born a Chilean, I am a Chilean,
I will die a Chilean.
They, the fascists, were born traitors,
live as traitors and will be remembered
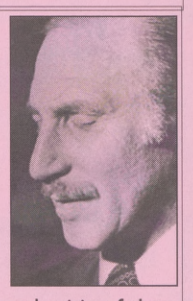
forever as fascist traitors"

– ORLANDO LETELIER (1932-1976)



In a major terrorist attack on US soil, on Sept. 21, 1976, the exiled Chilean diplomat and critic of the CIA-backed Pinochet regime in Chile was assassinated in Washington DC by a team of Chileans, a CIA Agent, & Cuban-exiles. On September 11, we will honor Orlando Letelier who was killed in this terrorist attack sponsored by the U.S. and Chile's Pinochet governments.
